

THE ATTITUDE OF 'MAKING' IS EXTREMELY POTENTI!

In a very hands-on process lasting only four days, we built a roof structure to shelter an event space and also held a real pilot event in the garden, during which a chef cooked with locally-grown produce and visitors took a tour of the garden to learn about the initiative. Despite the conflicts arising from differing stakeholders and expectations and the very short time frame, the group process was a resounding success.